The Purpose of the Peace Democracy

One of the most ponderous and oft repeated statements made by those who oppose the Government, is that the Union if restored by force, would not be worth having and therefore there should be no further opposition to the demands of the rebels. It is insisted that because the South, if conquered, would be sullen, quarrelsome, and ready at any time to break out in revolt, the wise course would be to make peace and let it go, or in other words, that the Government, which has only been doing its duty, is to yield to the lawless claims of a disloyal section, and drain to the dregs the bitter cup, which ought to be the portion of traitors—that the territory it had conquered is to be abandoned, the public property, the forts and dock yards captured in two years hard fighting are to be surrendered—the victorious armies of the Mississippi and the Cumberland, followed by the mocking sneers and derision of their nearly vanquished foe, are to retire from the field of conflict, and the Republic, once fearless and invincible, is to confess that it cannot maintain its authority—but disgraced and dishonored is to submit to shame and contempt, and become a hissing and a byword among the nations of the earth. Such a result, the patriotism of peace Democracy seeks to accomplish, to save its rebellious brethren from defeat and sorrow, and to spare them the grief of being reduced to lawful subjection. It is not considered that the south has provoked and invoked all the disasters which can possibly visit its people—that it will be only and strictly just for them to bear whatever grievous burdens their own wickedness has imposed, for which no one but themselves can be blamed. They have sown the wind, let them reap the whirlwind, till the bloody problem is worked out, man to man and bayonet to bayonet, if need be for ten years longer, and he is no patriot, but rather a traitor and a coward, who talks about peace upon any terms, save unconditional loyalty, and full surrender to the Government. His purpose is not dictated by mercy or honor,—it is the base truckling of political demagogues who want the south and slavery again, because through them, or through obedience to them, the Democratic party gained power and gave to its adherents place, influence and wealth. The same state of things is expected again, and doubtless it would return, if the Government should so basely sacrifice all northern and national rights, as to consent that any surrender should be made to rebels. But a short time would elapse, before the same faction that now clamors for peace, would with tenfold more assurance, demand that the Confederacy should control the nation, and the blessed days and rule of pro slavery Democracy return once more. From such a curse, every loyal patriot, every honest freeman, ought to pray and labor to be saved.

THE CALIFORNIA TELEGRAPH LINE.—The operator at Yreka, under date of Dec 15th, in a private letter to us received last night, says "I should have notified you some time since of the condition of affairs down this way, but have been out working on the line for past week. On the 6th inst., commenced a very heavy storm in this section, which almost entirely demolished about 80 miles of the telegraph line between this place and Shasta. Snow fell to the depth of 3½ feet, making it slow and difficult work repairing in mountains. We will, however, in a few days, be going again. Supt. Whittlesey is busy putting in new section of 33 miles in worst part of line. He will have it done in a few days and then we expect to keep the line in order all the time. If, in the meantime, I get any news in advance of mails, will forward it to you. It will not be long now before the line is up clear through, unless the weather is very bad. It is up nearly to Jacksonville, and over 100 miles of wire is now lying in that place, besides what has been sent to Portland. I think in ten days they will resume work on this end of the line."

The Jacksonville Sentinel of the 12th, says "The recent heavy snow storm on the Siskiyou mountain has displaced and broke in many places the wire lately stretched on the telegraph line between this place and Yreka. The wire had been stretched to within about twenty miles of this place, but the storm will probably delay the work a month or more."

The Democrat says "the workmen engaged in putting up the telegraph passed through town this morning, going south, having completed the work of stretching the wire between Albany and Salem."

LATEST.—The Union's dispatch from San Francisco contains the following:

Private telegrams from the East, under date of the 9th inst., quote gold doubtful at 148, and mention the non arrival of the California steamer as causing some alarm. The steamer connecting with the St Louis, which left this port on the 13th of November, was several days past due.

The following is a private dispatch received by a mercantile firm in this city:

NEW YORK, Dec 10th (received at San Francisco, Dec 11th, 12 M.)—President's amnesty partial. Radical no effect. Chase recommends 25 cents on tobacco, 60 cents on whisky, cotton 2 to 5 cents and some increase on coffee, tea and other articles.

EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to December 11.

NEW YORK, Dec 9th.—The steamer Chesapeake, from New York to Portland was captured off Cape Cod by a rebel steamer and taken to St John, New Brunswick, last night.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9th.—The Secretary of the Treasury, on receiving information of the seizure of the Chesapeake, immediately telegraphed to Collector Barney to send a cutter in pursuit of the pirates, but before the message reached him a dispatch was received stating that he had already dispatched the Tuli, on that business. The State Department telegraphed our Consul at St John to detain the Chesapeake should she arrive there and the Navy Department telegraphed to Commander Rhind at Portland to take on board some light artillery and a detachment of soldiers and go out in pursuit of the Chesapeake in the U S steamer Agawam.

NEW YORK, Dec 10th.—The identity of the pirates who captured the Chesapeake is still unknown. It is supposed that some of them came from Canada to Portland, and there embarked on board for this port. The steamer Potomac has been commissioned by the Government and will be armed and furnished with a fighting crew at the Navy Yard.

The St John Globe says the scheme was conceived there by Confederate agents. Meetings were held and the passage money of the parties, to make the seizure, was paid through to New York. They were also promised $500 each on the steamer's being safely taken into Wilmington. It is believed that a cargo valuable to the South, was shipped by Confederate agents there, and that it was arranged she should be seized on this particular trip. The Chesapeake did not coal there, but off harbor took on board Capt Parker, formerly of the privateer Retribution, who took command. At the latest advices the Chesapeake was reported near Cape Sable.

The agents of the steamer deny the statement of the St John agent in regard to the cargo of that steamer. Rebel sympathizers have originated the report to prejudice the British authorities.

WASHINGTON, Dec 10th.—The Report of Secretary Chase was delivered to-day. He recommends a duty of two fifths per cent on bank note circulation, two cents per pound on cotton, ten cents per gallon on crude petroleum, sixty cents per gallon on distilled spirits, twenty cents per pound on leaf tobacco, five to twelve cents on manufactured tobacco. The Secretary recommends the issue of no more paper money, but asks leave to borrow $300,000,000 for the current fiscal year.

The report of the Secretary of War is of considerable length. After reviewing our victories, and paying a tribute to the bravery and skill of the troops, it says: "The success of our arms during the past year has enabled the War Department to make a reduction of over two hundred millions in the estimates for the ensuing year." The trouble in regard to the exchange of prisoners is reviewed at length, and the responsibility for the non exchange is thrown entirely on the rebel authorities. He alludes to the generous treatment received by rebel prisoners at our hands, and denounces rebel authorities for the cruel manner in which they treat our prisoners in their hands. He then discusses the Act of Congress for enrolling and calling out the National forces, and says that the law has been enforced in twelve States, yielding fifty thousand men, and ten million dollars for procuring substitutes. The three hundredth clause is alluded to, as are also the conflicting opinions in regard to its justice or injustice. He says a large proportion of the troops whose terms expire next year will re enlist, it being agreed by the Government that they shall have at least one month's furlough before the present term expires. Indications are that the force required will, in a great measure be raised by volunteering and without a draft. An immediate appropriation for bounties should be made. The Secretary pays a tribute to the liberated slaves, and says they make good soldiers—being easily disciplined and full of courage. Fifty thousand colored troops are now organized, and the number rapidly increases as our armies advance. The Secretary gives a list of the principal ordnance and material under the control of the War Department at the beginning of the war, and the quantities of these articles on hand June 30, 1863. The figures are immense. The details of the Quartermaster General's Department, and also the report of the Commissary of Subsistance, are given.

It is believed that the troops have been supplied with abundance of wholesome food and that if in the movement of our armies temporary want has been felt, it has not been due to any want of foresight or attention on the part of the Commissary General's department. The report concludes—"I may be permitted to express the hope that the next annual report from this Department may announce the complete overthrow of the rebellion and the restoration of peace, and the establishment of the Union on a sure foundation in all the bounds of the United States."

CHICAGO, Dec 11.—The following is from the report of the Secretary of the Treasury. The Secretary has much satisfaction in being able to say in general that the operations of the department have been attended, during the last fiscal year, by a greater measure of success than was anticipated at the beginning. Notwithstanding the aid afforded by the additional issue of United States notes under the joint resolution of January last, the Secretary has found it impossible to prevent a gradual increase. During the session of Congress, in the amount of unpaid requisitions, those which were unsatisfied at the beginning of the session were indeed discharged, and large sums applied to a new demand for current disbursements. But the aggregate disbursements remaining necessarily unpaid increased steadily, notwithstanding all efforts to prevent it, until it reached at the close of the session, $72,171,189. The Loan Act and the National Banking Act were followed by an immediate public credit. Success quite beyond anticipation crowned the efforts of the Secretary to distribute the five twenty loan, as well as every other measure adopted by him for replenishing the treasury. The result was that within two months after the adjournment of Congress the whole mass of suspended requisitions had been satisfied, all current demands were promptly met, and full provision was made for the payment of the army and navy. Notwithstanding the great expenditures, the Secretary is gratified at being able to announce that the disbursements did not greatly exceed, while the increase of the public debt did not equal the estimates submitted to Congress last session. Thus, while it was estimated that the public debt on the 30th of June 1863 would reach the sum of $1,122,974,003, its actual amount that day was $1,098,793,181, and while the disbursements for the year were estimated at $[illegible],046,321, the real total was $714,709,995. The receipts from internal revenue have disappointed expectations. The estimate was $85,456,303, while the actual receipts are only $27,040,787. Part of the deficiency is attributed to imperfect execution of the law and part to changes made in the law by Congress after the estimates were made. It is probable that had neither cause operated to reduce the receipts the revenue from this source would have exceeded half the estimated amount. The following is the Secretary's statement of receipts and expenditures for the next year. The estimated balance June 1st, 18[illegible] [illegible] from customs, $70,000,000; internal revenue, $125,000,000; lands, $100,000; miscellaneous sources, $5,000,000—making the estimated aggregate of receipts, $206,8[illegible]. Estimated expenditure for the year, $[illegible] gross, from which deduct the estimated receipts from ordinary sources, as before stated, $206,[illegible]9, leaving to be provided for by loans $544,978,518. The sum to be provided represents the increase of the debt during the year. Assuming, therefore, the correctness of the estimate, which puts the debt on July 1st, 1864, at $1,686,956,641, it will result from these estimates that the whole debt will have reached by the 30th of June 1865, the sum of $2,2[illegible]. The limit prescribed by law to issue United States notes has been reached, and the Secretary thinks it hardly necessary to raise the amount, a sufficient circulation having been already provided. The Government must now borrow like any other employer of capital temporarily requiring more than his income will supply, and rely for the credit which will secure advantageous loans upon good industrial activity, accumulated through not immediately available capital, and satisfactory provisions for punctually paying the accruing interest and the ultimate reimbursement of the principal. To subscriptions for the remaining five twenties and deposits for temporary loans, therefore, must be directed all reasonable expectation of means for the service of the current year, except from negotiations under the Act of last Congress, and under some like Act which must be provided in like manner if the continuance of the war shall make it necessary. The sum of $544,978,518 is estimated as likely to be required from loans for the fiscal year 1864.

WASHINGTON, D[illegible].—The (loyal) Legislature of Virginia organized to-day. Gov. Pierpoint's message contains an argument against slavery [illegible] the Legislature call a Convention of the people to secure alterations of the Constitution [illegible]. All the State officers are sworn to support the Constitution of the United States and the laws of Virginia. [illegible] Officers will be called on for warrants [illegible] fugitive slaves and commit them to jail. [illegible] and the rebels glory in the strife. We must either decide [illegible] the United States or [illegible].

The Governor says he has [illegible] information [illegible] there will be more than enough [illegible] able men who have never bowed to secession, to welcome and carry on the Government of the State and that of every county.

NEW YORK, Dec 10th.—A special to the Times says Meade [illegible] is encamped in Culpepper county on the south side of the Rappahannock. He occupies his old position at Orange Court House. His advance line guarding the Rapidan fords. The pickets are [illegible]. There is but little fighting, and few collisions occur on either side. Bushwhackers are beginning to swarm again on our flanks and rear.

Jeff. Davis issued his Annual Message to the rebel Congress on Monday. The tone is mournful.

[illegible] says that the army [illegible] 1,000 and is raising huts for winter quarters along the line of the Rapidan.

Meade will soon be relieved of command. His successor is not yet appointed. However, it is well known that the President and Secretary Chase favor the restoration of Hooker, while the Secretary of War hesitates between him and Thomas. In the event of Thomas taking command the general impression is that Hooker will succeed him in command of the Army of the Cumberland. There is no truth in the rumor that Pleasanton is to be assigned to the command of the Army of the Potomac. It has been determined to reorganize that army.

Speaker Colfax is busily engaged in making up his Committees, and there is great pressure for positions on the Committee of Ways and Means. It will be selected with unusual care. Colfax is alive to the importance of placing upon it the best financial business talent in the House. It is probable that Henry G. Stebbins, elected as a Democrat and conceded to be one of the most skilful bankers in New York, will be offered the position in the Committee made vacant by Corning's resignation. Thaddeus Stevens will retain his position as Chairman. The standing Committees of the Senate have been agreed upon and sub Committees appointed. They will be announced in the Senate tomorrow—material changes have been made.

NEW YORK, Dec 10th.—A special dispatch to the Post says Ashley of Ohio will introduce in the House at an early day, a bill providing that the free States may recruit to fill their quotas in rebel States, offering such bounties as they please.

NEW YORK, Dec 11th.—A special dispatch to the World dated Army of the Potomac Dec 10th, says: There is no movement to record in the Army of the Potomac. The intention to keep the army here for a time, unless circumstances that are not calculated upon arise, is every where apparent. The men are building comfortable quarters, preparing for Winter.

The Herald's dispatch says: We have reliable authority that the enemy now occupy the following positions: Hill's corps, around Orange Court House, where Gen. Lee has his headquarters. Early's division [illegible] the Summerville ford, at Martin's and [illegible] fords. [illegible] at Mitchell's. Brown's [illegible] Germania ford. [illegible] volumes of smoke arising from the woods south of Raccoon and Morton's fords. It is evident the enemy is in force there. The rebel authorities state that Lee had over 60,000 men in his last campaign, and that he was certain of victory had we had rashness to attack him in position. It is stated that the enemy is building winter quarters.

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec 11th.—Jeff Davis in his Message is very despondent over the loss of Vicksburg, Port Hudson and other points. He says there has been no improvement in his relations with foreign countries since his last message. On the contrary there has been greater divergence in the conduct of European nations, assuming a character positively unfriendly. He speaks of the marked partiality of Great Britain in favor of the North. He says the public finances demand the strictest and most earnest attention, and that a prompt and efficacious remedy for the present condition of the finances is necessary to the successful prosecution of the war. He recommends taxation instead of further issue of [illegible] treasury notes. He also recommends the suppression of the substitute business and modification of the exemption law so that the army be increased as rapidly as possible. He regrets the suspension of the exchange of prisoners and that communication with the Trans Mississippi department is [illegible]. He concludes by saying: "The enemy refuse [illegible] the only peace possible. The only hope for peace now is a vigorous resistance."

Richmond papers have the following: Charleston, Dec 8. There was a brisk fire between Moultrie and Gregg this morning. The Yankees have [illegible] on Sumter. Our batteries [illegible]. Bristol, East Tennessee, Dec 8th.—Our forces besieging Knoxville fell back to Morristown on Friday night, 4th, where a stand will probably be made. The work of putting the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad in running order is being pushed forward rapidly. Our loss at Knoxville was about 600—principally in [illegible]'s division.

WASHINGTON, Dec 11th.—Gen. Meagher is not a prisoner as reported. The rebel Congress met on Monday (7th) at Richmond. Bills were introduced to prevent the employment of substitutes. A Mobile telegram says the Yankees [illegible] with the loss of 1,000 men on the 27th of November, and the navigation of the river virtually closed.

On November [illegible] Yankee cavalry were driven into Fort Hudson [illegible] of them being killed and wounded.

Charleston dates to Nov 7th report no change. A slow fire was kept up. Shells were thrown into the city on Monday night and Tuesday of last week. The Richmond Enquirer of Dec 8th protests [illegible] allowing any [illegible] provisions to come from the North to Yankee prisoners.

LOUISVILLE, Dec 11th.—The Journal has advices which [illegible] that John Morgan was in Cumberland county on Dec 7th en route for Dixie.

NEW YORK, Dec 11th.—Money easy at 7 per cent. Sterling 165a165½; gold [illegible] opening [illegible] advancing to [illegible] closing dull at [illegible]. Government stocks steady.

NEW YORK, December 10.—The [illegible] special dispatch has the following resolution, of which Wilson of Iowa gave notice on Monday, 7th:

Be it resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, That the following Article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution, which when ratified by three-fourths of the said Legislatures, shall be valid as a part of said Constitution, namely:

Article 1. Section 1.—Slavery being incompatible with free government, is forever prohibited in the United States. Involuntary servitude shall be permitted only as a punishment for crime.

Section 2.—Congress shall have full power to enforce the foregoing section of this Article by appropriate legislation.

NEW YORK, December 11th.—The Times' special dispatch says: [illegible] bill for the punishment of [illegible] of which he gave notice on the first day of the session, provides that all slaves freed by the emancipation proclamation of January last or by Act of Congress, shall be declared to be citizens and competent witnesses in all United States Courts, and any one attempting to reduce such persons into slavery shall be declared guilty of a misdemeanor, punished by a fine of not less than [illegible] nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned for not less than [illegible] nor more than ten years.

THERE is no other way to cure diseases but by first purifying the whole system so as to create a healthy circulation.

The first medical men of the age agree with us, that a disease of any extent can be cured without using such medicines as will act directly upon the blood. Why many medical men have failed to cure chronic diseases is because the medicines they have not been such as will act beneficially on the blood.

The many thousands of bottles which have been used by the public, and the many gallons and barrels supplied to the physicians, warrant us in saying that the last two years we have been more successful with our Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup in curing hopeless cases of chronic diseases than by any other remedies in the hands of physicians, or before the public.

It is now admitted that no combination known to the profession acts so promptly on [illegible] as our SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP.

TURPENTINE FACTORY.—We understand that this establishment will commence active and permanent operations in a few days, under auspices most favorable to success. The demand for and high price of turpentine on this coast, added to the facilities for procuring the bulk of the ingredients in a raw state, have paved the way for a lucrative business, which, guided by intelligent enterprise, bids fair to become no unimportant item in summing up our developing resources. We are informed by one of the gentlemen connected with this branch of industry that the rules and recipes adapted to the manufacture of turpentine in the Southern States of the Atlantic sea board do not apply here, owing to certain chemical properties of the crude material. The turpentine produced here, by a process peculiarly their own, is pronounced in San Francisco as well as here, second to none in the market. Such being the present case, of course we have a right to anticipate a really superior article when all arrangements are perfected for extensive manufacture. The [illegible] which they have just had cast at the Oregon Iron Works, and which was finished ready for delivery last evening, weighs 1,387 pounds. It is the largest casting of home manufacture in the State, and we suppose the day is not distant when their operations will demand, and our home mechanics can supply, even more capacious vessels in which to "bile 'em thar gum."

GOOD TARGET PRACTICE.—Some of the members of Co A, 1st Reg 2d Brigade O. Vols., under Capt Powell, had a little target practice over the river on Saturday last. Owing to the inclement weather, but few were present, while had the day been pleasant the company intended being out in force. The target was set up at one hundred paces, and was hit by thirty six out of fifty-four shots fired. It is said to be all things considered, the best target made in this section for some time.

DON'T LIKE MUD.—We noticed, yesterday, several cattle, which were being driven along First street, evince their disgust of the muddy thoroughfare by taking to the sidewalk, whither they were followed by the horsemen having them in charge. The taste of the stock was good, but its exhibition proved a source of inconvenience to pedestrians, among was a lady, detained until the cattle were driven back into the mud.

CARPET AUCTION TO-DAY.—Our readers will bear in mind that at ten o'clock this forenoon Mr. Richardson will auctioneer off that assortment of carpets, &c., composing the entire stock of Mr. Troutt, on Front street, opposite the Post Office. It is a rare chance for those who want carpets.

To-morrow, at his Auction Mart, Mr. Richardson will hold a levee for the sale of holiday goods, comprising splendid furs, dress patterns, shawls, and such like.

MASONIC ELECTION.—At a regular meeting of Willamette Lodge, No. 2, F. & A. M., held [illegible] evening, the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing Masonic year: [illegible] W. Cook, W. M.; P. C. Schuyler, jr., S. W.; [illegible] H. Saxer, J. W.; T. Robertson, Treas.; [illegible] Pennoyer, Sec.; F. Nauckee, Tyler.

"FAIR PLAY."—This is the name of the [illegible] Cowlitz river boat now lying at the wharf [illegible] being pushed rapidly forward toward completion. A portion of her machinery is already on board, and but a short time will elapse before she is in readiness for her trial [illegible].

ANOTHER NEW STEAMER.—The new boat built at Milwaukie is expected here to day, [illegible] of the morning boat from Oregon City, to receive her shaft, &c.

GOLD.—Wells, Fargo & Company's Express messenger last night brought down on the Wilson G. Hunt about 100 pounds of gold.

BOUND OVER.—The Albany Democrat says that Harry Harbison, who was accused of "appropriating" to his own use money belonging to Frank Layton, while the two were recently in Portland, was arrested in Umpqua Valley, and brought before Judge Powell, at Albany, for a preliminary examination. He was held for trial in the Circuit Court, and failing to give the required bail—$1,000—was committed to jail.

DROWNED.—Dr Davenport, residing near Albany, was found dead in a drift in Oak Creek, about four miles from that town. He had been missing several days.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—As the holiday season is upon us, it becomes a question of interest as to what sort of a present is the most suitable to make to our wives, mothers and sisters. It is a general complaint among them that their sewing is never done, the needle being in constant demand, especially where there are any children about. What then could be more acceptable than a first class Sewing Machine? We would recommend our male friends to think of this and see whether a present of that kind would not give greater pleasure and afford more actual assistance to their female friends than anything they could get. Before buying one we would suggest that they be careful to get the best they can find and in order that there be no mistake in the matter the agent of Grover & Baker's new style Family Machine, Mr Pierson, offers in selling to give a guarantee that his machines shall prove on trial to be the best that can be purchased for general family use, and if after a reasonable trial as to their merit, they be found wanting in any respect, he will refund the money to the purchaser. This should be satisfactory to everybody and we would advise any person about buying a machine to examine Grover & Baker's, as well as the work done by them. The agent has one set up for embroidery and will be happy to exhibit its workings to any persons who may favor him with a call. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Oregon Commandery will hold a meeting on Wednesday evening, 23d inst. Sir Templars in good standing are cordially invited.

Difference.

The King can drink the best of wine—
So can I;
And has enough when he would dine—
So have I;
And cannot order Rain or Shine—
Nor can I.
Then where's the difference—let me see—
Betwixt my Lord the King and me?

Do trusty friends surround his throne
Night and day?
Or make his interest their own?
No, not they.
Mine love me for myself alone—
Bless'd be they;
And that's one difference which I see
Betwixt my Lord the King and me.

Do knaves around me lie in wait
To deceive?
Or fawn and flatter when they hate,
And would grieve?
Or cruel pomps oppress my state—
By my leave?
No! Heaven be thanked! And here you see
More difference 'twixt the King and me!

He has his fools, with jests and quips,
When he'd play;
He has his armies and his ships—
Great are they;
But not a child to kiss his lips,
Well-a-day!
And that's a difference sad to see
Betwixt my lord the King and me.

I wear the cap and he the crown—
What of that?
I sleep on straw and he on down—
What of that?
And he's the King and I'm the clown—
What of that?
If happy I, and wretched he,
Perhaps the King would change with me!

TENNESSEE WOMEN.—The editor of the Henderson, Tenn., Times, a Secession sheet, in the course of his wanderings, has picked up some interesting intelligence, showing the unhealthy feelings pervading hundreds, and, he fears, thousands of families in East Tennessee. He gives the following interesting interview between a Rebel officer and a Lincolnite family on Powder river. He says:

At Powder river, I stopped and engaged milk of an old Lincolnite jade, keen as a briar, and mother of three (and I don't know how many more) rather fine looking girls. She complained to me of having been rudely treated by a North Carolina officer. Arriving at camp, I informed the officer of the lady's story, and he told me, knowing their political status, he had placed a guard around their house to prevent any of the family from going to the Gap while our army was crossing the river, and that in the meantime the following conversation took place:

Officer (entering the house)—Good morning, ma'am. (No answer.) Where is your husband, ma'am?

Old Woman—None of your business, you infernal rebel, you.

Officer—I know he is in the Yankee army.

Old Woman—Well, he is. What are you going to do about it? He is in the First Tennessee Federal regiment, at Cumberland Gap, and he will take off your rebel head, if you go up there.

Officer—Yes; but we have him and your General Morgan's command completely surrounded—hemmed in—with an army on both sides of the Gap, and in a few days will be starved out, and have to surrender upon our own terms.

Old Woman—We know all that, and are easy; but Lincoln will send an army through Kentucky which will wipe out your General Smith just as a dog would lick out a plate. Then you and your army of bare-footed roasting-ear stealers will have to leave here in the dark again, and badly scared at that. Besides this—

Officer—That's your opinion, but you are deceived. Where were you born?

Old Woman—Born? Why I was born and raised in Tennessee. I am an Old Hickory Tennesseean, dead out against nullification and its bastard offspring—secession. But where are you from?

Officer—I am from North Carolina, but a native of South Carolina.

Old Woman—A South Carolina scion of nullification—a double rebel, double devil. Old Jackson made your little turnip patch of a State walk the chalk once. And old Abe Lincoln will give you hell before spring.

Officer—(quitting the old lady and turning to the eldest daughter, whom he recognized as a mother,) madam, where is your husband?

Young Woman—That is none of your business.

Officer—But it is my business, where is he?

Young Woman—Where I hope I shall never see him again, where I hope you'll soon be.

Officer—Where is that?

Young Woman—Why, a prisoner in the hands of the army at the Gap.

Officer—What is that for?

Young Woman—For being what you are—an infernal rebel.

Officer—Oh, if that is all, I will send him back to you when we take the Gap.

Young Woman—No you needn't; cust if he ever sleeps in my bed again. I intend to get some Union man to father this child. Here, Net, (calling a nurse,) take this little rebel and give him some Union milk; let us try and get the secesh out of him.

Officer—(turning to Miss, Did you find a beau among the Yankee officers?

Miss—Yes, I did; a nice, sweet, gallant fellow; one who stepped like a prince. When you become a prisoner in his hands, give him my love, and tell him for my sake to put a trace chain around your infernal neck.

Officer—When do you expect to see him again?

Miss—Just after your General takes the next "big scare," which will be in the next ten days from this time.

Daylight having broken, and the army having crossed the river, the conversation I have given terminated.

YANKEE SKILL.—At Baton Rouge there is a contrivance of the soldiers for carrying water to the camps that displays considerable ingenuity. An ordinary barrel has fitted to the head a block of wood, with a pivot like the wheel of a wheel-barrow, and a rod of iron, like the tongue of a buggy, that forks near the barrel, to draw it like a garden roller, the barrel revolving like a wheel. Two men will draw a barrel of water up the levee with tolerable ease. A negro looking on at the performance said: "Well, 'fore God, what won't white man do!"

"Papa, didn't you whip me once for biting?" "Yes, my child, you hurt him very much." "Well, then, papa, you ought to whip sister's music teacher, too; he bit sister, yesterday, right on the mouth, and I know it hurt her, because she put her arms around his neck and tried to choke him."

An Irishman from the sod was eating old cheese, when he found to his dismay that it contained living inhabitants. "Be jabers," said he, "does your chase in this country have childer?"

A tender-hearted widower fainted at the funeral of his third beloved. "What shall we do with him?" asked a friend of his. "Let him alone," said a waggish bystander, "he'll soon re-wive."

There is a grocer up town who is said to be so mean that he was seen to catch a fly off his counter, hold him up by the hind legs, and look in the cracks of his feet to see if he had not been stealing some of his best sugar.

No man can avoid his own company—so he had best make it as good as possible.

THE MUTILATION OF UNITED STATES CURRENCY.—In further answer to the query as to mutilated currency in our paper of September 1, we have received the following letter:

"To the Editor of the N. Y. Tribune. SIR: The principal reason for the regulation in regard to the redemption of United States notes and fractional currency is to protect the people from frauds that would otherwise be perpetrated upon the Treasury, by making up notes from fragments torn or cut from different parts of like notes. No note is, or ever has been, rejected for being worn by use or otherwise, nor for want of a portion of so that its character can be discerned, nor its being torn, however badly, so that the pieces [illegible] will constitute nine-tenths of a note of fractional currency, or nineteen-twentieths of United States notes. It is only where a piece, to the extent above indicated, is torn or cut off for purposes of fraud or from malice or wanton carelessness, and not returned with a note for redemption, that a proportional reduction is made under the regulations of the office.

"F. E. SPINNER, Treas. U. S.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCEROUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"
"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"
Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS
THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,
And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that
THE CONSTITUTION,

FOR THE CURE OF
Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stom[illegible]
PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, [illegible]
DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect,
ED W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer C[illegible]
Bilious Disorders and Liver Com[illegible]
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D.C., [illegible]
SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,
ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hosp[illegible]
Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.
POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 15, [illegible]
DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, [illegible]
Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.
From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, [illegible]
DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. H[illegible]

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.
